Comprehensive Network® Inc.'s SignTalk® Series is an RID CMP/ACET approved sponsor of continuing education for sign language interpreters

OVERVIEW: The workshop will prepare interpreters to work more effectively in various substance abuse settings. Addiction terminology and the 12- Step philosophy will be fully addressed. Interpreters will receive copies of standard AA literature for their personal libraries. Materials will also include a listing of slogans/idioms specific to AA and 12 Step Programs. Participants will have the opportunity to view and take part in a mock AA meeting in a safe and encouraging atmosphere.

PRESENTERS:

Helen Faith Jones, (MA, NIC) is a nationally certified interpreter since 1987. A native of Michigan, she has worked as an interpreter trainer and mentor in diverse settings, including an Intensive Outpatient Program specifically designed for Deaf and Hard of Hearing persons.

Tammie Carmichael (NIC, NA) resides in Ohio where she provides services as an interpreter trainer, VIR interpreter and freelancer. Her extensive experience includes more than 12 years at an Intensive Outpatient Program specifically designed for Deaf and Hard of Hearing persons.
